IMMEDIATE PRIORITIES IF YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED SEXUAL ASSAULT

Are you still in danger?

Yes

Call 999 and ask for the police.
If possible, contact the College Lodge on 01865 279120.

Evidence and assistance:
Do not wash yourself or dispose of or launder clothes
Contact the Sexual Assault Referral Centre for specialist advice and support (SARC) 0300 130 3036
www.solacesarc.org.uk

or the police:
www.thamesvalley.police.uk/ | 101

or contact the Lodge to arrange a free taxi to the SARC in Slough or Bletchley and back (a friend or a Junior Dean can accompany you)

No

But you do need medical attention:
if urgent, call 999

If you have experienced or are accused of sexual assault seek advice from one of the following:

Sexual Assault and Rape Crisis Centre (SARC)
www.oxfordrapecrisis.net/
helpline 0800 783 6294 / 01865 726 295

Sexual Harassment and Violence Support Service
www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/supportservice supportservice@admin.ox.ac.uk

In College
The Decanal team - 24/7 assistance
decanal.team@queens.ox.ac.uk
contact via the Lodge 01865 279120 for emergencies 24/7
The College nurse
queensnurse@nhs.net | 01865 279195
The College Doctors
www.19beaumontstreet.com/ | 01865 240501
The College Welfare Officer
welfare.officer@queens.ox.ac.uk | 01865 289137
The College Chaplain
chaplain@queens.ox.ac.uk | 01865 279143

In University
Oxford SU
www.oxfordsu.org/ wellbeing/student-advice
www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/sexual-violence
The counselling service
www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/counselling | 01865 270300
The University Harassment line

Our College has ZERO TOLERANCE for sexual assault and harassment

www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/sexual-violence