FACULTY OF CLASSICS
FACULTY COLLECTION IN GREEK LANGUAGE (TT)

Time to be taken: 1.5 h.

Please answer ALL the questions.
For some questions, more than one correct answer could be given; unless otherwise instructed, give just one.
Please answer the questions on the spaces left for the answers on the collection paper; if you need to use more paper, attach it to the collection paper, please.
NB you may, but do not have to write accents, but you must write all necessary breathings.
SECTION A

1. (16 marks) Parse the following forms (say which form of which word each one is, and give the meaning of the word – e.g. παύω 1st person singular present indicative active of παύω - I make stop; φίλος - nominative singular of ὁ φίλος, ou friend):

   (a) θεῖο
   (b) ἤ
   (c) ἐλεῖν
   (d) φῆτε
   (e) ὅρα
   (f) εἰλήχει
   (g) πᾶσιν
   (h) τοῦτον
   (i) ἀττα
   (j) βάντα
   (k) ἐνί

2. (7 marks) Translate into Greek:

   (a) with two friends
   (b) between the walls
   (c) along the river
(d) in no way

(e) by the gods

(f) they got up

(g) they made it stand upright

3. Give the following forms:
(a) (10 marks) Dative singular and accusative plural, with definite article, and meaning of:

γένος
ναύτης

γείτων

γυνή

ναῦς

ναῦς

(b) (4 marks) Comparative and superlative (keep same case, number, and gender/form) of:

μέγαν
εὖ

γλυκεῖα

ταχύν
(c) (4 marks) 3rd person plural aorist optative passive and 3rd singular perfect indicative passive of:

λήψομαι

ἡνέχθην

ἡχέναι

δψη

(Section A: 41 marks)
4. Answer the questions on the following sentences, rewriting the sentences in Greek where indicated:

(a) ἐρομένου δὲ μοι τί αἱ θύραι νύκτωρ ψοφοῖεν (to make a noise), ἔφασκε τόδε . . .
(When I asked why the doors had been banging during the night, she said the following...)

(i) (2 marks) Change the underlined part into direct speech.

(ii) (2 marks) Turn the genitive absolute construction into a subordinate clause.

(a) χρῆ γὰρ ὑμᾶς εὐλαβεῖσθαι (to be careful) μὴ ὑπ’ ἐμοῦ ἐξαπατηθῆτε. (For you ought to be careful not to be deceived by me.)

(i) (2 marks) Turn μὴ ὑπ’ ἐμοῦ ἐξαπατηθῆτε into the active.

(ii) (2 marks) Turn χρῆ into a past tense. What else will change in the sentence?

(a) ἐὰν δὲ τοῦτο ἀκούῆτε, (θορυβέω, negative μή). (When you hear this, … (to make a noise, negated).)

(i) (2 marks) Complete the conditional construction using the material given in brackets.

(ii) (1 mark) Name the conditional construction.
(iii) (2 marks) Replace the protasis (the ‘if’ clause) with a participle construction.

(iv) (1 mark) If one changed τοῦτο from neuter to masculine, what would the form look like in this particular sentence?

5. (3x4 marks) Translate the following sentences into English, explaining the use of ὡς.

(a) ἐνταῦθα δὴ ὡς εὖ εἰπόντος τοῦ Ἀγασίου ἀνεθορύβησαν (to applaud).

(b) πολλάκις ἐθαύμασα τίσι ποτὲ λόγοις Ἀθηναίους ἔπεισαν οἱ γραψάμενοι Σωκράτην ὡς ἄξιος εἰς θανάτου.
(c) οἱ Πελοποννήσιοι, πολλὰ καὶ δεινότατα ὑπὸ τῶν Ἀθηναίων παθόντες, παρεσκευάζοντο ὡς πολεμήσοντες.

6. (2x4 marks) Translate the following sentences into English, explaining the use of the subjunctive.

(a) μάλιστα ἐπιθυμῶ ἀκοῦσαι, ἵνα σοι βοηθήσω ἐν ἀπορίᾳ ὄντι καὶ ἄθυμοντι.

(b) μηδεὶς ἡγήσηται τὸν Φίλιππον φίλον.

(Section B: 34 marks)

SECTION C

7. (5x5 marks) Translate into Greek: (and don’t worry about any vocab – re-phrase, and if you should get stuck on vocab, please indicate construction details.)

(a) So great did the victorious general appear that no one of those present spoke at all when he entered the city.
(b) Though she did not know him herself, she had always heard that he was a most clever philosopher.

(c) May you meet with success (ἕος ποιέω) if you march with Cyrus, and do not return without accomplishing (πράττω) something.

(d) After this, the Athenians no longer forbade their returning home, on condition that they handed over all their money to the state.

(e) After the news of the defeat had been brought, the panicking citizens were all running in different directions until finally the orator came forward and told them not to be afraid.

(Section C: 25 marks)

Total: 100 marks