SERVICES IN THE CHAPEL OF THE QUEEN’S COLLEGE

Weekdays

Morning Prayer (Monday – Friday) 8.45am
Choral Evensong (Wednesday & Friday) 6.30pm
Compline (Thursday) 9.45pm preceded by sherry in the Chaplain’s room from 9.15pm

The ‘daily office’ of morning and evening prayer is an ancient tradition of the church, established at Queen’s from its foundation by Robert de Eglesfield. These quiet services of psalms and scripture give a daily rhythm, a space to prepare for or reflect on the day, and an opportunity to pray for ourselves, our college, and one another.

Please note: services this term end with Advent Carols on Thursday of Eighth Week.

Sundays

except Fourth Week (29 Oct)

Holy Communion 9.30am
A quiet service with a short sermon, followed by refreshments in the Magrath Room.

Choral Evensong 6.15pm
Sung service led by the Choir, with a sermon by the Chaplain or a guest preacher, followed by drinks in the Magrath Room.

Special services during Michaelmas Term

College Communion Sunday of Fourth Week (29 Oct) at 6pm
Advent Carol Service Thursday of Eighth Week (30 Nov) at 5.15pm

Prayers for World Mental Health Day Tues 10 Oct (1st wk) 12.30 -1pm
Patronal Festival and All Saints’ Gaudy Weds 1 Nov (4th wk) 6.30pm
Commemoration of the Departed Friday 3 Nov (4th wk) 6.30pm
Act of Remembrance (at plaque by library) Friday 10 Nov (5th wk) 10.55am
Mass celebrated by the RC Chaplaincy Tues 28 Nov (8th wk) 6pm

Chapel Charity

Collections are taken at Choral services for a charity nominated by members of the college. This term’s charity is the Oxford Winter Night Shelter, a new initiative in response to the closure of local shelters.
