

Multi-Faith Prayer & Meditation Space

Welcome to Queen's Multi-Faith Prayer and Meditation Space

Before entering please knock gently, and enter quietly, in case there is someone using the space

Please help keep our prayer and meditation room a welcoming and restful space for all

- This multi-faith prayer and quiet room is a silent, mixed-gender and mixed-faith space for all members of The Queen's community.
- A maximum number of four may use this space at the same time.
- It is a space for silent prayer and contemplation for individual use, not for group use.
- Users of this space are asked to respect these simple rules:
 - Please keep the room tidy and accessible, do not remove or add items of furniture.
 - Feel free to use any personal items of religious practice (including written materials, pictures or other objects) but do please take them away with you.
 - Signs point the way to North, South, East, and West as an aid to locating Qibla (southeast when in the UK), and other directions.
 - Do not prevent others using the room for long periods.
 - Please keep noise to a minimum. General conversations, mobile phone calls, music, chanting, and singing are not permitted: this is a space for silent prayer and contemplation.
 - If you wish to take off your shoes, kindly leave them in the rack.
 - Please refrain from eating or drinking (closed water bottles are okay).
 - No collecting of money without permission.
 - No candles, incense, or naked flames of any kind are to be used.
 - No leafleting.
 - People outside of the College, notably invited speakers, are not allowed to use this space as a platform for speeches or talks of any kind.
 - Use the basin for hand washing, but use the shower for more extensive ablutions.

Please let Liam (Chaplain) or Fergus (Domestic Bursar) know if there are any issues with the room
